To my Marshall First UMC family,

I cannot thank you enough for the support and wonderful fellowship I have received since I came in January of this year. It's been so good getting reacquainted with many of you, and getting to know some new people too. Unfortunately, due to the pandemic, we do not know when the choir will sing again. In addition, my position at the college was eliminated, and I have had to look for new work. The Indiana Conference of the United Methodist Church has appointed me to the pastorate of the Salem UMC, located just north of Clinton. I am excited about this opportunity, but I am heartbroken about leaving Marshall. I expect I will never again direct a choir as fine as ours. Many, many thanks to pastor Bob and the entire staff. You are the best. When you see me playing in the Marshall City Band, please say hi.

God Bless You All, Duane

Living For Christ in the Everyday A Worship Series Based on James

James is a small but insightful book in the New Testament. James offers us practical and relevant direction for living the Christian life. Join us Sunday mornings in person or on Facebook as we open ourselves to the book of James. You can find the weekly themes and foundational Scriptures below.

Thanks to everyone who bought a sign for the church lawn. We will continue to use them as we continue dealing with the Covid-19 pandemic. AND, a special thanks to Jarod Green for making all the signs.

Susie Carey

Marshall Rehab & Nursing has residents of all faith practices asking for large-print Bibles and other large-print religious materials. If you or someone you know would be able to donate new large-print materials, please drop off items at the front door donations box or contact Amy Hannig, Community Relations Coordinator by phone or email to arrange for minimal-contact pickup. (826-2358)

SAVE YOUR BOOKS

If you have books for Susannah Wesley's book sale, you can drop books off at the church by the back door from 8am-noon Monday thru Friday.

Do you recognize any of these dishes? If any of them are yours, please call the church office before noon any week day, & we will set them outside the back door for you to pick up.

If you would like to provide flowers for Sunday worship, please call the church office.

Scrip Cards & Orders

James will be ordering Scrip Cards on Monday, September 14. If you have an order, please have it to the office no later than 10am that morning. He still has many on hand. Call the church office during the week if you have any questions or to find out what he has on hand.

SUNDAY MORNINGS:

Temperature Takers Sound Techs

Sanctuary Guides Lower Level Guides

Cleaners Between Services

(Call the church if you would like to volunteer.)
